HON. A. K. McCLURE, Philadelphia, Solicitor.

The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Chean	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Governmnt, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree renumerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

SHIRTS AND THE LITTLE HEATHEN.

BY JOHN QUILL.

"But they must have clothes, Mr. Wilkins."

"No they mustn't It's ridiculous nonsense for any collection of old women like your sewing society to start out a lot of duds to the heathen in Africa. It is confounded stupid, I say.—Whatdo you suppose a lot of old coffee-colored pagans, steeped in ignorance and vice, want with shirts? Hey? Why, they don't wan't 'em. They were born without 'em, weren't they? And if it was right for them to have clothes don't you suppose they would have had 'em? Don't you suppose beneficent nature knows better than you and all the other heifers down at the sewing bee? Why it's absolutely ridic——"

"Wilkins, you shan't talk that way about——"

"It's perfectly ridiculous. But you go on; you go on and send them over there to Africa, and do you know what will happen? Do you know what will be the result of your tomfoolery? Why, the very first thing you know some benighted heathen or other will go and mount one of those shirts some night, and paddle around in the dark and scare the other heathen, and make them believe in ghosts, and set the whole continent of Africa to falling down and sacrificing themselves to a lot of old nine-headed idols, and jabbering away at their pagan prayers. You've got sin enough on your soul, old woman, without that, I want you distinctly to understand."

"Mr. Wilkins you are too contemptible to notice."

"Yes, and I'd like to know what an ignorant heathen knows about shirts, any how? Why, absolutely nothing; and very likely the first fellow that tries to get into one will get it upside down, and mix his legs all up in the sleeves, and get himself into a tangle and trip up, and fall over some precipice or other, and then there will be the responsibility for a mangled man added to your list of crimes. But I'd just like you to bear in mind that you don't send any of my wardrobe out there. I don't want a parcel of Ethiops sporting around on Afric's sunny shore in my linen. Not exactly. I like to see men enjoy themselves, but not in that indecent style.

"But, Mr. Wilkins——"

"Pretty spectacle it will be now, won't it? Forty-six little Africans dressed in a simple but chaste garb of white shirts, sitting along a bench in Sunday-school wriggling their toes, or else enjoying themselves at recess singing 'ham fat' and doing 'the walk around.' That's a pretty way to civilize a heathen land, ain't it? For they won't wear any pants you observe. If you go to shipping a lot of pants over there the first thing you know they'll have them tacked on some idol or other, or rammed full of feathers, and be holding religious service before each pant; and as for socks, why every sock as has ever been sent over there has been stuffed with sand, and used as a war club. That's so, and I've no doubt that very identical pair you're knitting on now will brain a stray pagan some day or other in some muss.

"Mr. Wilkins, you know that's not so."

"If you want to do your colored friends a service, why don't you go to work and ship them a lot of the delicacies of the season? Why don't you send out a ship load of canned missionaries, or something else that will make their teeth water? Or you might collect an assortment of second hand jaw bones, and give them for necklaces, or send out your own false teeth, or——"

"Wilkins! I'll scratch——"

"Or go yourself, and see how it feels to be eaten. I won't stop you. You've got my permission, you understand. But I pity the miserable pagan that stuffs himself with you. You won't agree with him. You never did with me, my love——"

"Mr. Wilkins, you are a brute."

"But for my part I think you had better stay at home and attend to your children, instead of fooling down there at that society with a lot of tabbies, who slander their neighbors, and make more mischief than they do underclothes for the naked Hottentots."

"Mr. Wilkins, that's not so."

"You'd better stay at home and sew for your family, that's what you'd better do. There's William Henry been going round for six weeks or more with only one gallus on his pants, and looking like he was a deformed cripple, with one shoulder a foot higher than the other, while his stockings have no feet, and the upper part of them keep a working up his leg until the boy nearly goes mad."

"What an awful story, Wilkins."

"And Bucephalus Alexander's best Sunday jacket has burst out all over in spots, and Breckenridge Augustus, having run out of handkerchiefs, has lately been practising wiping his nose on his sleeve in church, until I was so mortified that I had to take him out last Sunday and have him stood in the coal hole and spanked like the nation by the sexton. Unaffected simplicity is all well enough in its way, but that's carrying it a little too far."

"Mr. Wilkins, you know that's not true."

"And, as for Mary Jane, she is just going straight to destruction. She's got to imitating your example, and now she thinks it ain't worth while to live if you can't do something for the heathen. So what does she do yesterday but go and give my best high hat to the boy who swept the chimney, and it came nearly down to his waist, and she asked him if he had ever read Dr. McPherson's treatise on "The Whole Duty of Man," and he observed that he "didn't know nuffin about dat dar, he reckon" and while she went up stairs to get it for him he embezzled two chunks of corned beef and a cold potato, and the first thing you know he will be in the penitentiary, and all along of your blame foolishness."

"I declare, Mr. Wilkins, you are a scandalous story-teller."

"And there's the boys, it was only last Saturday that they took their crowd up stairs, and played that the garret was Africa, and one half of them represented heathen, and ran around without a stitch of clothes on them and Bucephalus Alexander he distributed my clean shirts among them, and they upset all the barrels, fired away all my old books in a skirmish with the savages, and one of them, who was a cannibal, like to gnawed the whole thumb off of Wm. Henry, trying to swallow him, because he said he was a missionary, and it ain't well yet."

"Pshaw, Mr. Wilkins, you talk like a—"

"And, then, what must Mary Jane do, but try to represent a heathen mother; wholly unenlightened by Christianity, trying to drown her infant in the sacred river, which she represented by dousing the cat in the bath-tub, but that animal wouldn't play fair, and liked to scratch the whole hide off of her, whileshe let the water run until the room was full, and it poured a perfect cascade out of the window, which she said was to represent the overflowing of the Nile, like she read about in her Sunday school lesson. I say it's perfectly outrageous to bring up your children in this kind of style. If you love the heathen, why go among them, but don't go to poisoning the minds of your innocent offspring."

"As long as you have made such a fuss about the sewing-circle, Mr. Wilkins, I'll tell you what I've been making there."

"You needn't mind, I don't want to hear it. I'm tired of hearing you talk. Just give me a chance to speak a word now, will you?"

"But——"

"Oh don't 'but' me; I won't listen to you."

"I wasn't sewing for the heathen, I didn't stick a stitch for the heathen at the sewing-circle."

"Well, what in the mischief were you fooling your time away down there for, then?"

"Why—I—was—making—you—a dozen—new—shirts—while—you—were abusing—me—you'll break my heart—yes, you will."

"There, now, don't cry, my darling. Don't cry, I was only in fun; I was only joking, you understand. I didn't mean it. There now, don't cry, I say, Sally. Well, bellow, then, bellow. You may cry until you are tired. I never did see such a woman as you are."

And Mr. Wilkins took a pull at the covers, turned over and went to sleep. But he seemed to be reconciled to her next day, for he called her several hard names because she left the baby covered up on the sofa, so that he inadvertently sat down on it.

A curious suit is about to be tried before a Memphis justice of the peace. A white man has a young bull pup. The pup bit a bare-footed negro in the heel as he was passing. The negro jumped and two of the pup's teeth were thereby abstracted. The negro sues the white man for allowing a vicious dog to run at large. The white man files a crosscut saw bill and sues the negro for having a heel tough enough to drag a dog's tooth out.

The Hon. Edward Everett, when a young man just out of college, was invited to give an oration in the city of Salem. At the dinner, Judge Story called up Mr. Everett by the following sentiment: "Fame follows applause where ever it (Everett) goes!" Mr. Everett arose instantly, and gave the following: "The members of the legal profession! However high may be their aspirations, they can never rise higher than one story."

The Chinese do not steep their tea in a pot, but put it in your cup, pour in hot water, covering the cup to retain the steam, allowing it to stand five minutes, draining off and refilling. The second cup is considered the best, and the third filling is very good. But when the strength is exhausted, the grounds are thrown into the jars, taken outdoors, spread on clothes, dried, doctored, repacked, and sent over to us.

GOSSIP ABOUT GEORGE WASHINGTON.

His House and Habits in Philadelphia.

Awhile since, in lookihg over a Philadelphia Directory for 1797, my heart gave a great bound as I came upon this entry;

Washington, George, 190 High Street.

To the disgrace of Philadelphia, that house, second only in historic interest to Independence Hall, was many years ago demolished.

But, for a few charmed hours of a midsummer evening, that mansion has stood again for me, and Washington has walked before my eyes "in his habit as he lived;" and yet the only magic conjuration was the clear memory of a gracious old man, who in his early childhood, was a neighbor of Washington, his parents living, I believe on Sixth street, near High.

At the house of a friend in Philadelphia I was so fortunate as to meet Mr. Robert E. Grey, a man past four score, but wonderfully well preserved—looking much younger than his years—a gentleman of the old school in courteousness of manner, in elegance and neatness of dress, stately in figure, with a fresh and handsome countenance. In person and demeanor he reminded me strongly of Walter Savage Lander, as I saw him in his eighty-first year.

When I asked this noble relic of the past for his recollections of Washingington, he said: "Bless you, I have little to tell. I was so very young at the time when I knew him, that I have only childish recollections, mere trifles which will scarcely interest you." On my assuring him these were just the things I wanted to hear, he talked modestly, and with much questioning, of the old days of Philadelphia, and of the great President and his household.

In his childhood, he said, the place where we then were, on Tenth street near Arch, with the roar of the great city about us, was quite in the rural districts. He remembered going to bathe in the little pond, near the corner of Sixth and Arch streets, a secluded and shaded spot. High street, the fashionable avenue, was only planted with rows of the Lombdary poplar nearly out to the Scuylkill, and was the favorite Sunday promenade of the citizens.

"Washington's house," said Mr. Grey, "was thought a very fine mansion. It was what was called 'a house and a half'—that is, the hall was not in the middle, but had two windows at the left. It was two stories and a half high, with dormer windows. It was rented for the President of Robert Morris, but originally belonged to Galloway, the Tory."

"Was Washington the stately and formal personage he has been represented?"

"Yes he was a very dignified gentleman, with the most elegant manners—very nice in his dress, careful and punctual. I suppose he would be thought a little stiff nowadays."

"Did you ever hear him laugh heartily?"

"Why, no, I think I never did."

"Was he always grave as you remember him, or did he smile now and then?"

"Why, bless you, yes, he always smiled on chiidren! He was particularly popular with small boys. When he went in state to Independence Hall, in his cream-colored chariot, drawn by six bays, and postillions and out-riders and when he set out for and returned from Mount Vernon, we boys were on hand; he could always count us in, to huzza and waive our hats for him, and he used to touch his hat as politely as though we had been so many veteran soldiers on parade."

"Were you ever in his house, as a child?"

"Oh! yes; after his great dinners he used to tell the steward to let in the little fellows, and we, the boys, of the immediate neighborhood who were never far off on such occasfons, crowded about the table and made quick work with the remaining cakes nuts and raisins.

"Washington had a bad habit of pacing up and down the large front room on the first-floor, in the early twilight, with his hands behind him; and one evening a ltttle boy, who had never seen him, in attempting to climb up to an open window to look in upon him, fell and hurt himself.—Washington heard him cry, rung for a servant, and sent him to inquire about the accident—for, after all, he was soft-hearted, at least toward children.—The servant came back and said:—'The boy was trying to get a look at you, sir.' 'Bring him in,' said the general, and, when the boy came in, he patted him on head and said: 'You wanted to see General Washington, did you?' 'Well, I am General Washington.' But the little fellow shook his head and said: 'No, you are only just a man, I want to see the President.'

"They say Washington laughed and told the boy that he was the President and a man for all that. Then he had the servant give the little fellow some nuts and cakes and dismissed him."

I asked Mr. Grey if he remembered the Custis children.

"Yes," he said I often saw them at the windows or driving with Mrs. Washington in her English coach."

They did not seem to have left a very vivid and human impression on his memory. With their fine clothes and company manners, with their attendants, tutors, dancing and music masters, they must have seemed very strange, inaccessible, and unenviable little personages to all the happy, free-and-easy children of the neighborhood.

"Do you remember Washington's levees, and Mrs. Washington's drawing-rooms?" I asked.

'Yes I remember hearing about them. All the evening parties were over by 9 o'clock, and the President's house was dark and silent by ten. They were great affairs, but I was too young to know much about them. I attended his horse levees. I was very fond of visiting his stables, early in the morning, at the hour when he always went to inspect them. I liked to see him at that work, for he seemed to enjoy it himself. Like President Grant, he was a great lover of horses. I can almost think I see him now, come striding out of the house across the yard to the stables, booted and spurred, but bareheaded and in his shirt-sleeves?

"Washington in his shirt-sleeves?"

"Yes, madam; but he was always Washington. The grooms stood aside, silent and respectful, while he examined every stall and manger, and regularly went over every horse—I mean, he passed over a portoin of its coat with his large white hand, always looking to see if it was soiled, or if any loose hairs had come off on it. If so, the groom was reprimanded and ordered to do his work over. Generally, however, Washington would say:

"Very well. Now, John get out Prescott and Jackson, his white chargers. 'I'll be ready by the time you come round."

"Did he ride at so early an hour?"

"Yes. Generrally between 5 and 6 of a pleasant morning he was off; and he almost always rode up to Point-no-Point, on the Delaware, a little way above Richmond. He was a fine horseman, and being a long-bodied man, looked grandly on horseback. It was a sight worth getting up to see."

Here came a pause, and then I propounded the momentous old question:

"Did Washington ever swear?"

"Well, as for that I can not speak from my own observations. Washington had great self-control—he was a moral man—a religious man, for those times, and did not swear upon small occasions, and, I should say, never before children; but, from what I have heard my father and old soldiers say, I think he must have blazed away considerably in times of great excitement. He was very tender to his favorite horses, and, at one time I remember to have heard a young aide or secretary ask leave to ride one of his white chargers, on the way to Mount Vernon, and the General allowed him to, but cautioned him not to rein the horse too tightly. After awhile, Washington saw he was worrying the animal, and cautioned him again; but the fellow kept pulling and jerking at the bit until the creature became almost unmanageable."

"Then Washington broke upon him, like a whole battery, ordering him to dismount, and swore tremendously. I remember, too, that I once heard an army officer tell about his cursing some General who disobeyed him in battle."

"Lee, at Monmouth?"

"Yes, I believe so. Anyhow, my informant said it was the great st sort of swearing, yet wasn't so awful as Washington's face at the time. He said, I remember: 'I never saw the devil before.'

"These things were told of him, but not told against him. It was the fashion of those times. However, I never heard a rough word from him, or saw his face when it was not peaceful and pleasant.'—Grace Greenwood in Hearth and Home.'

Like the generality of the kings and conquerers, Frederick the Great had a most philosophic indifference to death—in others. In one of his battles, a batalion of veterans having taken to their heels, he galloped after them, bawling out, "Why do you run away, you old blackguards? Do you want to live forever?"

A man, less heavy than a horse, has a greater relative muscular power. The dog, less heavy than man, drags a comparatively heaiver burden. Insects as their weight grows less and less, are able to drag more and more. It would appear, therefore, that the muscular force of living creatures is in inverse proportion to their mass.

A preacher in Chicago recently refused to say grace at the table when requested to do so, saying it was a mere formality, and the best grace was to eat moderately, digest well the meal, and then go to work and earn another. For the same reason he refuses to pronounce the benediction.

An invalid disturbed all the inmates of his boarding house, recently by imitating a dog. When asked why he did it, he said he had been ordered by his physician to use Port-wine and bark.

Why are sheep the most dissipated animals in creation? Because they gambol in their youth, spend most of their days on the turf; the best of them are black legs, and they are sure to be fleeced at last.

The author of a radical total-abstinence novel wrote in his book, 'Drunkenness is folly." He was much chagrined when the work came home from the press to find that the printers had made it read, "Drunkenness is jolly."

A pupil in declamation having been told to gesticulate according to the sense, in commencing a piece with 'the comet lifts its fiery tail,' innocently lifted the tail of his coat, and looked around for applause.

A lady complaining that her husband was dead to fashionable amusements, he replied, "But then, my dear, you make me alive to the expense."

The London Spectator justly remarks that in the United States "a tone of contempt towards the President is becoming more apparent in both parties.

BEDFORD COUNTY ERECT!

The whole Democratic County Ticket Elected!

THE SPLITTERS SPLIT!

Hall's Poor House Ticket Terribly Beaten.

The result of the election in this county on Tuesday last, is most cheering to the true men who stood by the Democratic ticket. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, our majority for the state and legislative tickets, is not so large as it would have been had the day been a fair one, yet our victory is substantial and complete. The dissensions on the Sheriff question, kept some voters from the polls, though Mr. Keyser, the democratic nominee for that office, is elected by a handsome majority. The effort of a few shallow-pated radical politicians to make capital against our candidates for Commisioner and Poor Director, resulted in utter failure. Messrs Elder and Pencyl are elected by a larger majority than that given for the State ticket. The triumph over the radical tricksters and the disaffected in our own ranks, on Tuesday last, teaches the lesson that it is useless to undertake to defeat a regular Democratic nomination in this county. Perhaps some people will profit by this experience. The majority for Packer in the county will not vary much from 350, but may exceed it. All the districts have been heard from except Southampton, which last year gave 190 Democratic majority. Owing to the rain, this majority has, doubtless, fallen of considerably, as it is not probable that its heavy Democratic vote was fully polled. If it gave the same vote as last year, Packer's majority would be 390 in the county.

THE SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

The race between Findlay, (Dem.) and Scull (Rad.) in this Senatorial district, is very close. Our reports show the following result:

	Scull	Findlay
Bedford	——	360 est. maj.
Fulton	——	380 " "
Somerset	700 maj.	——
		740
		700
Findlay's maj.		40

Should Southampton, (which is yet to be heard from) fall off less than 30 from last year, Findlay is certainly elected.

LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT.

Longenecker and Long are elected to the legislature from this district, by very small majorities. Noble's maj. over Longenecker in Fulton is about 400, in this county 500. Longenecker has a little over 1000 in Somerset.

The following is an extract from a private Letter written by the Proprietors of the Plantation Bitters:

"We had no conception of the widespread suffering which exists, or of the almost infallible cures produced by the Plantation Bitters, when we first commenced offering them for sale. We now find that every house has a weak child, an ailing parent, or debilitated aged member, who needs this Tonic. Our laboratory has grown from a single room to an immense building, and our sales from a few bottles to as many hundred dozens per day, and we are glad to know that they have done you so much good.

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE.

The death of Ex-President Pierce took place at Concord, New Hampshire, on the morning of the 8th inst. Including Tyler and Fillmore, he was the fourteenth President of the United States. He was born in the town of Hillsboro', N. H., in 1804. His father, General Pierce, served first in the ranks and afterwards as an officer, throughout the revolutionary war, and in 1827, at the ripe age of sixty-nine, was elected Governor of New Hampshire and afterwards re-elected to the same office in 1829. His son, the subject of this brief memoir, graduated at Bowdoin College in 1824 with marked distinction, and, entering the law office of Judge Woodbury, at Portsmouth, soon afterwards removed to Northampton, Mass., where he spent two years pursuing his preparatory studies in the law school there and in the office of Judge Parker at Amherst, and in 1827 he was admitted to the bar. His entry was anything but brilliant. It is recorded of him, in fact, that his first case was a marked failure. But he was not discouraged, and remarked to a friend: "I will try nine hundred and ninety-nine cases, if clients will continue to trust me, and if I fail, as I have today, will try the thousandth. I shall live to argue cases in this court house in a manner that will mortify neither myself nor my friends." Nor was he disappointed. But his attention was soon turned to politics. He and his father were active supporters of Gen. Jackson, and in 1829 the son was elected to the State legislature from his native town of Hillsboro', and was re-elected for four successive years, serving as Speaker the last two.

In 1833 he was elected to Congress, and again elected for a second term. His record there was not particularly brilliant, although he was known as one of the most faithful and laborious members, the leading measures of Jackson's brilliant administration finding in him a warm and ardent advocate. In 1837 he was chosen United States Senator and took his seat in that body as its youngest member at the beginning of the administration of Mr. Van Buren. Such men as Clay, Calhoun, Webster, Benton, Woodbury and Wright occupied seats in the Senate then. But in defense of democratic ideas on all questions affecting the finances, the tariff, National Banking, &c., running through the contest of 1840 and the election of Harrison, Mr. Pierce was looked upon by the democracy as among their ablest men.

In 1846 President Polk tendered him the appointment of Attorney General, which he refused, alleging that public life was not suited to his taste.

On the breaking out of the Mexican war he enrolled himself as a private soldier in a Massachusetts regiment, and soon afterwards received a Colonel's commission from President Polk, who, in 1847, raised him to the rank of Brigadier General. He was in most of the battles fought between Vera Cruz and the city of Mexico. On the restoration of peace he returned home and resumed the practice of the law. In 1850 he was elected a member of the Convention to revise the Constitution of New Hampshire, and in 1852, after thirty-five ballotings, was nominated by the Democratic National Convention for the Presidency. He was elected in November of the same year, and served to the end of his term, the country meanwhile enjoying the highest state of prosperity. Soon after his retirement he visited Europe, making an extensive tour, and, returning in 1860, has lived in retirement eversince. He was high-toned, honorable and genial to the highest degree, and as a statesman, if he did not outrank the most notable of his predecessors, he was at least their equal in wearing worthily the dignity of his high office. Although the victim of unceasing abuse, poured out by political foes, perhaps not one of them would now hesitate to say that no man ever left the Presidential chair wiih a more stainless reputation than General FRANKLIN PIERCE.

A TEXAS TRAGEDY--AN INSANE MAN MURDERS HIS FATHER, HIS CHILD AND A CLERGYMAN.

The Waco (Texas) Register relates the following sad tragedy:

On Tuesday night a week James McCarty, Jr., in a fit of insanity murdered his own father, his own little son six or seven years of age, and a neighbor, the Rev. Henry Hurley.—All the parties are residents of Erath county.

The circumstances, as we gather the horrid details, were these: For some months, at different times, James McCarty had shown signs of mental aberration. On the day previous to the dreadful occurrence McCarty expressed the wish to his wife to be baptized right away by the Rev. Mr. Hurley. He soon left his home on Duffau creek and proceeded up the creek several miles to where his father, James McCarty, Sr., lived. He told his father of his intentions of being baptized by Mr. Hurley, but his father persuaded him to remain where he was and he would go after Mr. Hurley, who lived several miles off. The son agreed to this, but when in the evening the father returned with Mr. Hurly it was found that the son had gone back home.

The father and Mr. Hurley followed to the residence of the insane man. Bedtime came and all retired for the night. Mr. McCarty, Sr., and Mr. Hurley occupying the same bed in a separate room. In the night the wife of McCarty, Jr., was aroused by her husband, who demanded a light, and was looking for his six shooter. Mrs. McCarty was alarmed, escaped the house and screamed, but too late. The insane man had made ready his pistol, entered the room where his father and Mr. Hurley were sleeping, and shot both in the head, as is supposed, before they awoke. He then called his little son and bade him sit down on the doorstep and remain quiet until he returned. The father then went to the creek, a little distance off and got a rock. Returning with this he ordered the child to lean over and lay its head upon a block, near which the child was sitting. The innocent child obeyed, when the father, with one blow from the rock, mashed out its brains.

James McCarty, Jr., is not far from thirty-five years of age, has always born an irreproachable character for industry, sobriety and integrity, and was universally esteemed as a good citizen. The Rev. Henry Hurley and James McCarty, Sr., were both old and prominent citizens of Erath, aged and grayhaired men. They were both universally esteemed and respected. Erath had no better citizens than they.

SINGULAR DIVORCE.—A husband pays his wife $2,000 to desert him.—The St. Louis (Mo.) Times, of Sept. 21, gives currency to the following singular case: It will be recollected by the readers of the Times that a week ago Philip Hessdorfer was arrested on the campaint of his wife, who charged him with committing wilful perjury in his testimony before the Circuit Court, for the purpose of procuring a divorce. It appears that about a year ago Hessdorfer and his wife, finding that in their domestic affairs they could agree only in disagreeing, decided to separate the on following terms: She was to receive a cash payment of $1,000 and leave the city, and one year after the date of her withdrawal was to be paid an additional $1,000, and in the meantime he was to secure a divorce on the ground of disertion. She left the city and took up her abode in Cincinnati. Hessdorfer applied and obtained a divorce without any resistance. A week ago, the year having expired, she returned to the city for the purpose of collecting her little deposit, and instead of calling upon her former husband she visited some friends, who persuaded her to institute suit. She consented, supposing a civil action had been commenced for the recovery of the money, and when she learned that an arrest had been made she refused to prosecute. She says that her husband was not guilty of any criminal offence, whatever, and that the divorce was obtained with her knowledge and consent. When she called upon him he consented to her recieving the $1,000 and it was accordingly paid over, when she refused to follow up the suit, and the case was accordingly dismissed yesterday for want of prosecution. In possession of the money, Mrs. Henrietta Hessdorfer left the city, and promises to give her former husband no further trouble. This case is very much unlike many others in the courts, and particularly unlike those where two men have sued for damages on account of losing their wives. Hessdorfer, on the contrary, actually pays a large sum to assist his spouse to "desert" him, which according to the laws of this State, furnishes a valid ground for divorce.

A lady recently sent to request a female friend to accompany her to Grace Church. The reply came back: "Sorry, but I'm dressed for St. Paul's."

Fearful Accident at Indianapolis Ind.; Twenty Persons Killed and Fifty Wounded.

A terrible accident occurred at the State Fair Grounds at Indianapolis, Ind., on the 1st inst., which was the most heart rending that ever occurred in that vicinity, and has cast a gloom over the entire city. The explosion took place at four o 'clock, while the grounds were crowded with visitors. The boiler was attached to the sawmill of Messrs. Sinker & Co., of Indianapolis, and had just been fired up for a test with another machine, and arrangements had been made to take it up as soon as the trial was over. As far as can be ascertained nineteen persons were killed. The excitement and confusion were so great that it is difficult to obtain a correct list of the wounded. The number of wounded will reach nearly one hundred. Most of the dead were removed to W. W. Weaver's undertaker's office, where an inquest was held. Many of the bodies were horribly mutilated and burned, and in some cases it will be imposible for their friends to recognize them. Many of the most severely wounded were conveyed to the Indiana Surgical Institution, the proprietors of which as soon as they heard of the accident tendered the use of their establishment for the wounded, and have been untiring in their efforts to alleviate their sufferings.

A little baby was killed in its father's arms and the father escaped without injury. Governor Baker was on the ground at the time of the explosion. A portion of the boiler passed over his head and struck his coachman who was standing a few feet behind him, injuring him, seriously.—The scene after the accident was most heartrending. Many of the killed were torn into fragments. In one family, consisting of a mother and three children, the mother was killed and the two elder children badly scalded, the youngest was unhurt.

Among the frightful incidents that occurred at the explosion, it is related that one man had his breast and abdomen torn open so that the heart and entrals were exposed, the heart continuing to palpitate visibly for some time. A woman is reported to have given birth prematurely to a child during the panic that succeeded the explosion, and many of the wounded are thought to have been trodden to death by the crowd.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 2.—The morning papers give the number killed by the boiler explosion at the State Fair, yesterday, as 27, the wounded, as 56. The wounded doubtless exceeds that number, as many were taken immediately to their homes and no report has been made of them. The most dangerously wounded were taken to the Indiana Surgical Institute.

It seems to be the general opinion that the cause of the explosion was a want of water in the boiler. The Coroner's Jury are in session to-day, but have not rendered the verdict. Five horses were killed by the explosion.

NEWS ITEMS.

By the news we receive from Tennessee from day to day it is evident that Ex-President Andrew Johnson is ahead of all competitors for the United States Senate. Good, and amen, we say. No more useful man could be sent to the Senate. Congress is corrupt to the core. Andy is both honest and vigilant, and, with all his crotchets and failings, he will prove a very watchdog to the Treasury. He is fearless and experienced in Congressional tactics, too, and will rake scheming politicians and Treasurer plunderers fore and aft. Besides, he has his personal enmities to gratify on the impeachers and leading Radicals, and he is not the man to forget these, which will make things very lively in Congress and be a good thing for the newspapers. Tennessee could not do better than to send the Ex-President to the United States Senate.—N. Y. Herald, October 7.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—A letter from General Alfred Sully, from Helena, Montana Territory, received by Commissioner Parker yesterday morning, states that the Blackfeet Indians in that region are becoming very troublesome. Lately they have committed two or three murders, and in the open day entered white encampments and drove away horses and mules with the greatest audacity. Four hundred and fifty head of horses and mules were thus driven off from white settlements within a very few days. General Sully writes that the only remedy he knows of now is to pursue the savages and punish them, which he proposes to do without delay.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—M. Frignet, an agent of the Rothchilds, is expected in this city shortly. M. Frignet comes here, it is stated, to tender on the part of the famous bankers a loan to any extent that our Government may desire. This voluntary action on the part of the Rothchilds is said to have been prompted by the discovery that certain German capitalists were contemplating offering our Government a loan at four per cent. M. Frignet is said to be authorized to make the same proposition.

The sound steamers on the line between New York and Boston have recently become notorious for the great risk of lif and limb the passengers are subject to. A short time ago a traveler by this route was drugged, robbed and thrown overboard from one of the boats, without attracting any attention from the officers or crew. After remaining two hours in the water, the sufferer from this assault and robbery was rescued. More recently an unoffending passenger was shot down—on one of these boats without having given the slightest provocation.

A negro man named James Quin, about 22 years of age, committed a nameless offence on an aged white woman, 65 years of age, named Miss Reiss, of Baltimore, on a visit to Mr. William Robinson, of Hartford, near Whitehall, and made his escape into Pennsylvania. He was pursued and caught at Glenrock, York county, Pa. He was carried to New Market, and from there to Freeland's Tank, when he was put on the train last week for Towsontown. When the train arrived at Whitehall, Md., the citizens boarded the cars, took the negro out, and carried him to the place of his crime, six miles off, and hung him to a tree.

The Mormons have at length arrived at a settlement with the Union Pacific Railroad, and have taken a part of their pay in track iron and rolling stock for the Utah Central. BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

NEW POST OFFICE.—A new post office has been established in St. Clair township, near Hull & Deaner's mill, called "Spring Hope," Henry Albaugh is appointed Post-master.

Now is the time to repair our county roads. We hope supervisors will attend to this matter, and make such improvements as will be lasting. A road repaired substantially will save the townships great expense and the supervisors much trouble and labor in the future.

LAST NOTICE.—The books and accounts of the GAZETTE Office, have been placed in the hands of H. Nicodemus, Esq., for collection. Those in arrears will save costs by settling at an early date. All accounts prior to the first of August, 1868, are included in the above.

G. R. OSTER & Co. have just received a large assortment of Ladies', Misses' and Children's superior custom-made Boots and Shoes. Call and see. They speak for themselves. sep30m1.

SHOE TIPS.—The American Shoe Tip Company have introduced, this season, a new white metal tip, which by wear has the appearance of silver, and is decidedly ornamental. A metal tip adapted to first-class shoes has long been needed. This new tip meets this demand, and must come into as general use on the finer grades of children's shoes as the copper tips have on the common grades.—Boston Journal.

HOW TO KEEP CIDER SWEET.—The following recipe, on account of the large yield of apples, will be of value to our farmers: When fermentation commences in one barrel, draw off the liquid into another one—strain through a flannel cloth. Put into the cider three-fourths of an ounce of oil of sassafras, and the same of the oil of wintergreen, well shaken up in a pint of alcohol. But one difficulty is said to pertain to this preparation of cider. It is so palatable that people won't keep it long.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH.—William McMullin, Esq., the obliging Manager of this excellent telegraph company has shown us the new tariff which has lately been adopted and which went into operation on the 1st instant. The adoption of this uniform tariff, based on air-line distances, materially reduces the price of sending telegrams—making a reduction of from 20 to 25 per cent on the old rates. We will give a few instances to show the reduction made. A telegram of ten words from Bedford to Cumberland under the old tariff cost $1.35; the new rate is 55 cents. The same telegram to Omaha under the old tariff cost $4.45; new rate, $2.30; new rate less, $2.15.—The company deserve the thanks of the communities through which their lines pass, for this liberal reduction of tariff. We learn that other plans for increasing the utility of the telegraph to the public, are being matured, and will be announced as soon as completed. The Western Union is an enterprising company and deserves much credit for the liberality shown to a patronizing public.

The Adjourned Court of last week was sparsely attended. But few persons were present beside Jurymen, Attorneys, clients and witnesses. But little business was transacted though the Court continued until Saturday noon. Hon. Judge Rowe presided. The following cases were tried:

S. S. Fluck, et al. vs. James Bowser—Jury called and Court ordered a non suit to be entered.

James Patton vs. Samuel Heffner, et al.—Tresspass. Verdict for Defendants.

Frederick Miller vs. John McIlvaine—Breach of Promise—mis-trial, Jury failing to agree.

Samuel Mixell vs. East Providence Twp.—Tresspass. Verdict for Plaintiff. Damages $107.75.

SAVE THE CORNFODDER.—We have long been of the opinion that there was not that attention paid to the curing and saving of the cornfodder that its value demanded. Every good farmer must know that cattle eat it greedily through the winter, and if cut and steamed it is as good for them as the best hay and really more milk-producing.

Where is the necessity of allowing it to remain in shocks until the middle or end of November? Corn should not be cut down until the stalks are dying and the grain is pretty hard, and then it should remain no longer in the field than necessary for the drying of the grain. It should be husked as early as possible, and the fodder tied up in bundles and either carefully stacked near the cattle stables or put under shelter in sheds.

It is well known, too, that horses prefer it to the best hay; also that the blades are especially sought for to feed racing animals, strengthening their wind and bottom beyond any other food. It is besides wholesome provender and helps most beneficially in making the winter's supply of hay hold out till late in the spring, with the addition of chopped roots, which every farmer, who shrewdly looks to the main chance, ought to cultivate for feeding in the early part of the winter.—Germantown Telegraph.

POOR HOUSE METING.—Pursuant to the call of a number of citizens opposed to building on the present Poor House property, a meeting was held in the Grand Jury Room on Wednesday evening of last week and the following resolutions were passed:

1. Resolved by the tax-payers of Bedford County, in Mass Meeting assembled, that we are opposed to the building of an expensive Poor House property, that we believe the said property to be unsuitable for the purpose of a Poor House, and that the same ought to be sold, and a suitable property be purchased, on which a comfortable, plain and inexpensive building should be erected.

2. Resolved, That we know of no way to carry out our wishes except by nominating candidates for county Commissioners and Poor Director, without respect to party, who will pledge themselves to our view.

3. Resolved, That we do hereby nominate Samuel Shafer of Union twp., for County Commissioner, and Henry Moses of Bedford twp., for Poor Director, as an independent ticket.

4. Resolved, That Wm. Chenoweth, P. H. Shires and Thomas Hughes, be a committee of three to inform the candidates of their selection and to ascertain if they accept the nominations and will pledge themselves to carry out our wishes.

5. Resolved, That we do hereby recommend to the incoming Legislature the appointment of commissioners, for the sale of the present Poor House property, and the buying of another.

The Best Wash for Trees.

October is perhaps the best period for the autumn scraping and washing of fruit trees. The insects which hide in the bark and crevices of the trees have by that time retired to their winter quarters and can be easily destroyed. There is nothing equal as a "wash" with which to scrub trees than a preparation of say one pound of whale oil soap to a large bucket of water well dissolved. There is nothing more nauseous to insects than this. It will lay "cold" everything that we have tried it on but the curculio—that, however, cares no more for the mixture, even though accompanied with sulphur, lime water, and tobacco juice, than if it were a gingerly dose of pure spring water. But rose-bugs and steel blue grape-bug, surrender to its power incontinently. Every farmer and gardener ought to have a supply of this soap on hand for use whenever necessary.

Apple and pear trees well scraped and then washed with this preparation will not only be free from some of the chief insects praying upon foliage and fruit, but will sensibly feel its invigorating effects.—Germantown Telegraph.

ADVANTAGES OF CRYING.—A French physician is out in a long dissertation on the advantages of groaning and crying in general, and especially during surgical operations. He contends that groaning and crying are two operations by which Nature allays anguish; that those patients who give way to their natural feelings more speedily recover from accidents and operations than those who suppose it unworthy a man to betray such symptoms of cowardice as either to groan or to cry. He tells of a man who reduced his pulse from one hundred and twenty-six to sixty, in the course of a few hours, by giving full vent to his emotions. If people are at all unhappy about anything, let them go into their rooms and comfort themselves with a loud boo-hoo, and they will feel a hundred per cent. better afterwards.

In accordance with the above, the crying of children should not be too greatly discouraged. If it is systematically repressed, the result may be St. Vitus' dance, epileptic fits, or some other disease of the nervous system. What is natural is nearly always useful; and nothing can be more natural than the crying of children when anything occurs to give them either physical or mental pain.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption, is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address REV EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings County, New York.

THE

SEWING MACHINE!

Is retailed at a price within the reach of all. This Machine uses a straight needle, makes the LOCK STITCH (alike on both sides), has a self-adjusting tension, and can do every variety of sewing. It will hem, fell, bind, cord, braid, seam, built, tuck, ruffle, and gather; and will work equally well on silk, linen, woolen, or cotton goods, with silk, linen, or cotton thread.

THE

AMERICAN SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE

—IS—

Warranted for Five Years!

Our Agents will be supplied with duplicate parts of the Machine, in case of accident. It makes precisely the same stitch made by the Singer, Wheeler & Wilson, Howe, and Florence Machines. It has the Under-feed, like the best of high-priced Machines, and is the only low-priced Shuttle Machine in the market that has this feed. We are enabled to sell a first-class SHUTTLE MACHINE at a very low price, on account of its Simplicity, and consequent low cost of Manufacturing, in comparison with Complicated Machines.

AGENTS.

We wish to arrange with Agents, male or female, to represent the American Shuttle Sewing Machine, in each State, County, and Town in the United States and Ontario. Extra inducements to Experienced Agents. For full particulars, as to Salary or Commission, address

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New Designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MIDDLETON'S

WONDERFUL PAIN CURE

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffnes, of the Joints and all similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism. For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.

ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton,

This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.

Yours &c., A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869.

Mr. Middleton,

DEAR SIR:—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly,

JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 13, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used "Middleton's Pain Cure," for Rheumatism, and was very much benefited by it. JOHN HARRIS.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment, for the Rheumatism which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved.

L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869.

Mr Middleton,

Dear Sir:—Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for some four weeks with Rheumatism, and got some of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks, she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others. JACOB BOWSER.

BEDFORD, May 16 1869.

Mr W. W. Middleton:

Sir—I procured a bottle of your Liniment for Rheumatism, and it gives me great pleasure in saying that after using it for two days, my rheumatism was completely relieved. My sister was suffering, at the same time, with Inflamatory Rheumatism in her right hand and wrist—after using it for several days she was relieved. I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.

JOHN KEEFE.

BEDFORD, May 24, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used one bottle of Middleton's Liniment, for Rheumatism, and think it a good cure, and would recommend it to all persons that are afflicted with the above disease.

AUGUSTUS CARVER.

BEDFORD, May 26, 1869.

Mr. Middleton:

Sir—I procured one bottle of your medicine and used one-half of it for Rheumatism, which effected a permanent cure up to this time. I cannot hesitate in saying that it is the best remedy I ever used. A. B. CARN.

This excellent PAIN CURE is prepared only by W. W. MIDDLETON, Bedford, Pa., to whom all orders for the medicine should be addressed.

NATURE'S GREAT RESTORER.

SCHEETZ'S

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adeertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE OOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.
